Feel like eating something sweet, but don't know what? Let us introduce you to our brand-new Vegan Wafer Bar! It's a wafer bar with 30% protein, no palm oil, natural flavours, and a delicious dark chocolate coating!

If you want to include quality plant-based protein products in your diet... this is the bar for you! Pea protein, with its excellent amino acid composition, is the best plant protein you can use, offering a nutritional value comparable to that of whey protein. Our bar also contains rice protein which, combined with legume protein, provides a high biological value and easily digestible protein.

We want everyone to be able to take in proteins, including people with a vegetarian or vegan diet, hence the development of this new vegan wafer bar. It is available in two delicious flavours: salted chocolate and pineapple-coconut.

If your goal is to gain muscle mass, lose weight or simply have a tasty snack, this is the bar for you. Any time is a good time to enjoy this delicious bar, you can take it after an intense workout or even as a snack between meals. You're in for a treat... ;)
