MULTIVIT up

- The most delicious way to get your vitamins and minerals
- Sugar and gluten free
- Only 17 kcal per serving

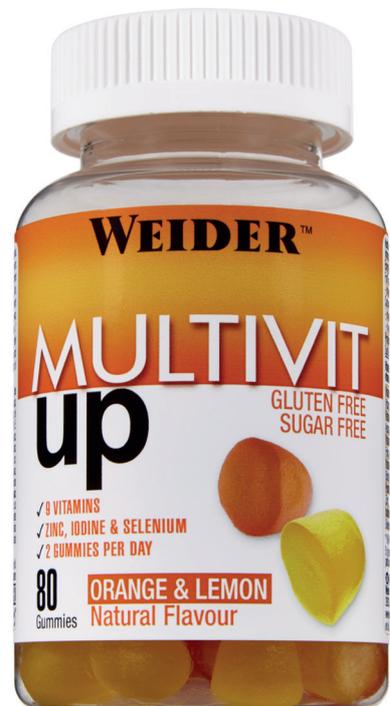

Multivit Up by Weider is an innovative, revolutionary way to take vitamin and mineral supplements.

Vitamins and minerals are essential nutrients and should be consumed as supplements to food. However, the reality is that our increasingly fast-paced lifestyle, leaves little time for healthy diets, sometimes resulting in nutritional deficiencies. Adding a complete multivitamin supplement to your diet such as Multivit Up makes it much easier to ensure an adequate intake of these nutrients. It is a simple and sweet way to make a difference in your diet.

The Multivit Up formula is super complete. Taking two Multivit Up gummies a day provides 65% of our daily requirements of these vitamins and minerals; Multivit Up contains 9 vitamins and 3 minerals that help with some of our most important body functions:

- Vitamin A: immunological function, absorption of iron and skin care.
- Vitamin D: proper absorption of calcium, care of bones and muscles.
- Vitamin E: powerful antioxidant.
- Vitamin C: care of the immune system, formation of skin, cartilage and collagen. Powerful antioxidant.
- Vitamin B6: energy production, nervous system function and protein metabolism.
- Vitamin B5: energy production, hormone synthesis, combats tiredness and fatigue.
